Event Brief Report

International Yoga Day

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce successfully organized International Yoga Day on 21st June with great enthusiasm and active participation from students, faculty members, and staff. The event aimed to spread awareness about the importance of yoga in maintaining physical health, mental peace, and overall well-being.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who highlighted the significance of International Yoga Day and encouraged everyone to include yoga in their daily routine for a healthy and balanced life.

A trained yoga instructor guided the participants through various yoga asanas, pranayama, and meditation techniques. Students actively participated and performed exercises such as Tadasana, Vrikshasana, Bhujangasana, and Surya Namaskar. Breathing exercises and meditation sessions helped create a peaceful and positive atmosphere.

The event emphasized the theme of harmony between mind and body and inspired students to adopt yoga as a part of their lifestyle. Faculty members also shared their views on the benefits of yoga in reducing stress and improving concentration.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of the organizers and participants. The celebration of International Yoga Day at DRK College of Commerce was successful in promoting health awareness and encouraging a disciplined and healthy way of living.

Event Brief Report

Tree Plantation Day

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized Tree Plantation Day with the objective of promoting environmental awareness and encouraging students to protect nature. The event was conducted with active participation from students, faculty members, and staff.

The program began with a short speech by the principal, who explained the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and reducing pollution. Students were motivated to take responsibility for protecting the environment and making the campus greener.

During the event, students and teachers planted saplings in the college campus and nearby areas. Different types of plants such as neem, mango, banyan, and flowering plants were planted to improve greenery and create a healthy environment. Faculty members explained the importance of afforestation and how trees help in providing oxygen, preventing soil erosion, and controlling climate change. Students took a pledge to care for the planted saplings and continue participating in environmental activities.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to all participants for their valuable contribution. Tree Plantation Day was a successful initiative that created awareness about environmental conservation and inspired everyone to work towards a greener future.

Event Brief Report

NCC Cadet Enrollment

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized NCC Cadet Enrollment to encourage students to join the National Cadet Corps (NCC) and develop qualities of discipline, leadership, and patriotism. The event aimed to motivate students to participate in nation-building activities and personality development programs through NCC.

The program began with an introductory session by the NCC Officer, who explained the objectives, benefits, and responsibilities of being an NCC cadet. Students were informed about training activities, camps, parades, social service, and opportunities available through NCC.

The enrollment process included registration, physical fitness screening, and basic interaction with interested students. A large number of students actively participated and showed enthusiasm to become part of the NCC unit.

Senior NCC cadets shared their experiences about camps, drill training, certificate examinations, and the values they learned through NCC. Their guidance inspired new students to join and contribute to discipline and service activities.

Faculty members appreciated the initiative and encouraged students to make use of this opportunity for personal growth and national service. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, making the NCC Cadet Enrollment program successful and inspiring for all participants.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Event Brief Report Independence Day Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce celebrated Independence Day on 15th August with great patriotism and enthusiasm. The event was organized to honor the freedom fighters who sacrificed their lives for the independence of India and to promote national unity among students.

The program began with the hoisting of the National Flag by the Principal, followed by the National Anthem. Students, faculty members, and staff gathered with pride to pay respect to the nation and its heroes.

The principal delivered an inspiring speech highlighting the importance of Independence Day and the values of freedom, unity, and responsibility. Students also delivered speeches on the contributions of national leaders like Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhas Chandra Bose, and Bhagat Singh.

Patriotic songs, cultural performances, and dance programs were presented by students, creating a strong sense of national pride and enthusiasm. NCC cadets also participated in parade activities, adding discipline and spirit to the celebration.

Faculty members encouraged students to become responsible citizens and contribute positively to the development of the nation. The event concluded with a vote of thanks and distribution of sweets.

The Independence Day celebration at DRK College of Commerce was a memorable and meaningful event that strengthened the spirit of patriotism and national pride among all participants.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Event Brief Report

Blood Donation Camp

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a Blood Donation Camp with the aim of creating awareness about the importance of blood donation and encouraging students to contribute to saving lives. The event was conducted with active participation from students, faculty members, and staff in collaboration with a local hospital and blood bank.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who highlighted the value of voluntary blood donation as a noble social service. Students were motivated to participate and understand their responsibility toward society.

Medical officers and health staff explained the process of blood donation, its safety measures, and the benefits of donating blood. Proper health check-ups, including blood pressure and hemoglobin testing, were conducted before donation to ensure donor safety.

A large number of students and staff members willingly donated blood, showing great enthusiasm and social responsibility. Certificates of appreciation were provided to the donors for their valuable contribution.

Faculty members appreciated the efforts of the organizers and encouraged students to continue participating in such humanitarian activities. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, making the Blood Donation Camp a successful and meaningful initiative for social welfare.

Event Brief Report
De-Addiction Awareness Program
Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a De-Addiction Awareness Program to create awareness among students about the harmful effects of addiction and the importance of a healthy lifestyle. The main objective of the program was to educate students about the dangers of tobacco, gutkha, smoking, alcohol, and other harmful addictions.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who explained the importance of living a drug-free and disciplined life. Students were encouraged to stay away from bad habits and adopt healthy practices for a better future. Expert speakers explained the physical, mental, and social effects of addiction. They highlighted how addiction damages health, causes financial loss, and negatively affects family and society.

Students actively participated by delivering speeches, presenting slogans, and displaying awareness posters on de-addiction. Some students also took a pledge to remain addiction-free and inspire others to do the same.

Faculty members motivated students to maintain positive thinking, good company, and regular exercise as ways to avoid addiction and lead a successful life. The program concluded with a vote of thanks and a collective promise to build a healthy and addiction-free society.

The De-Addiction Awareness Program was successful in spreading awareness and encouraging students to choose a responsible and healthy lifestyle.

CLEANLINESS DRIVE AND NO VEHICAL DAY

Event Brief Report

Cleanliness Drive and No Vehicle Day

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a Cleanliness Drive and No Vehicle Day to promote environmental awareness, cleanliness, and the importance of reducing pollution. The event aimed to encourage students to maintain a clean campus and adopt eco-friendly habits in daily life.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who explained the importance of cleanliness for a healthy environment and the need to reduce the use of vehicles to control air pollution and save fuel.

Students, faculty members, and staff actively participated in cleaning the college campus, classrooms, playgrounds, and nearby public areas. Waste materials were collected and proper disposal methods were followed to ensure cleanliness and hygiene.

On No Vehicle Day, students and staff were encouraged to walk, use bicycles, or public transport instead of personal vehicles. This initiative helped spread awareness about reducing carbon emissions and protecting the environment.

Faculty members explained the social responsibility of keeping surroundings clean and supporting sustainable living practices. Students also took a pledge to maintain cleanliness and follow environmentally friendly habits.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of all participants. The Cleanliness Drive and No Vehicle Day program was a successful initiative that inspired everyone to work towards a cleaner and greener future.

BLOOD DONATION CAMP

Event Brief Report Blood Donation Camp Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a Blood Donation Camp to create awareness about the importance of voluntary blood donation and to encourage students to participate in social service. The event was conducted with the support of a local hospital and blood bank.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who highlighted the value of blood donation as a life-saving act and encouraged students to take part in this noble cause. Faculty members also motivated students to contribute to social welfare activities.

Medical officers explained the process of blood donation, its safety measures, and the health benefits associated with regular blood donation. Basic health check-ups such as blood pressure, hemoglobin, and general fitness tests were conducted before the donation process.

A large number of students, faculty members, and staff members voluntarily donated blood with great enthusiasm and responsibility. Donors were appreciated with certificates and refreshments for their valuable contribution.

Students learned the importance of helping society through such humanitarian activities and developed a sense of social responsibility and service.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of the organizers, medical team, and participants. The Blood Donation Camp was a successful and meaningful initiative that promoted health awareness and humanity.

REPUBLIC DAY

Event Brief Report

Republic Day

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce celebrated Republic Day on 26th January with great pride and patriotism. The event was organized to honor the Constitution of India and to remember the values of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity that form the foundation of the nation.

The program began with the hoisting of the National Flag by the Principal, followed by the National Anthem. Students, faculty members, and staff gathered to pay tribute to the nation and express respect for the Constitution.

The principal delivered an inspiring speech on the significance of Republic Day and explained how the Constitution guides the country toward democracy and unity. Students also gave speeches on the importance of constitutional values and the contributions of national leaders like Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, Mahatma Gandhi, and Jawaharlal Nehru.

Patriotic songs, cultural performances, and group dances were presented by students, creating an atmosphere of national pride and enthusiasm. NCC cadets participated in parade demonstrations, showing discipline and dedication.

Faculty members encouraged students to become responsible citizens and uphold the dignity of the nation by following constitutional values and social responsibility.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks and distribution of sweets. The Republic Day celebration at DRK College of Commerce was a memorable and meaningful event that strengthened patriotism and respect for the Constitution.

Event Brief Report

Fire Safety Activity

Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a Fire Safety Activity to create awareness among students and staff about fire prevention, emergency response, and safety measures. The event aimed to educate participants on how to handle fire-related emergencies and protect lives and property.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who emphasized the importance of fire safety in daily life and the need for preparedness during emergencies. Faculty members and staff were encouraged to actively participate and learn safety procedures.

Fire safety experts were invited to demonstrate the proper use of fire extinguishers and explain different types of fire hazards. They provided practical guidance on handling situations such as electrical fires, gas leaks, and emergency evacuations.

Students and staff actively participated in the demonstration and learned important safety techniques such as using extinguishers, calling emergency services, and maintaining calm during fire incidents. A mock drill was also conducted to practice safe evacuation from the campus.

Faculty members appreciated the importance of such training and encouraged students to spread awareness about fire safety in their homes and communities.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks. The Fire Safety Activity was a successful and informative program that improved awareness and preparedness for emergency situations.

VOTING AWARENESS RALLY

Event Brief Report Voting Awareness Rally Organized by DRK College of Commerce

DRK College of Commerce organized a Voting Awareness Rally to create awareness among students and the public about the importance of voting in a democratic country. The event aimed to encourage citizens to participate actively in elections and exercise their right to vote responsibly.

The program began with a welcome speech by the principal, who explained the significance of voting as a fundamental right and duty of every citizen. Faculty members also motivated students to spread awareness about fair and responsible voting.

Students, faculty members, and NCC cadets actively participated in the rally with banners, placards, and slogans promoting voter awareness. The rally started from the college campus and passed through nearby streets and public places to reach the local community.

Participants raised slogans encouraging people to vote without fear, avoid corruption, and choose honest and capable leaders for the development of the nation. The rally also highlighted the importance of youth participation in strengthening democracy.

Faculty members appreciated the enthusiasm of students and emphasized the value of informed decision-making during elections. Students learned the importance of democratic participation and social responsibility.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks and a pledge to promote voter awareness. The Voting Awareness Rally was a successful initiative that inspired civic responsibility and democratic values among students and society.
